COLLEGE TEAMS

Yellow Jackets and Spiders Will Fight Hard in Contest This Afternoon.

There was a very spirited gathering of all students of Richmond College last night in the college chapel. Many speeches were made, those bringing forth the most applause being delivered by Coach Long and Captain Gill. While it was said that speech-making never yet won a game, it does help a lot in college ball. The locals will march to the field to-day in a body, and expect to be out 200 strong. Feel-ing is running high at the local college.

and expect to be out 200 strong. Feeling is running high at the local college. They are getting behind their team, and with Baldwin in the box, if he equals his record made against Hampden-Sidney last Tuesday, which team he let down without the semblance of a hit, it is certain that the Spiders will win.

But, of course, a hard fight is expected, as always happens when Richmond College plays Randolph-Macon. The men from Ashland are as fully determined to win as are the Hiehmond boys. Both teams have a thousand per cent, and to-day's game will more than likely determine the winner of the coveted championship cup.

Reports from Ashland say that the Mathodists have a very strong team this year. They defeated William and Mary in a hard-fought battle Saturday, the score being 2 to 1. The entire Richmond College team attended this game, and brought back reports that the Yellow Jackets have a team worthy of the best efforts that the Spiders can put forth.

Appreciating the fast work that he had witnessed at Ashland Saturday, Coach Long had his hopefuls out early yesterday and worked them hard for two hours. All of the regulars were in place, and attended by a large body from the college they showed much enthusiasm. The locals will line up as follows:

Clarke, catcher: Mercedith, first base; Beale, second base; Gill, third base;

Clarke, catcher; Meredith, first base;

TRACK AND FIELD SQUAD RESUMES ITS PRACTICE

Virginia Athletes Preparing for Dual Meet With Johns Hopkins, to Be Held May 13,
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Charlottesville, Va., May 1.—Virginia's track and field squad resumed regular training to-day, preparatory to the dual meet with Johns Hopkins University on May 12. Since the meet with Pennsylvania the men have been indulging in very light workouts, jogging through a short distance in the afternoons. After the Southern Intercollegiates the men were let off the pledge, in an attempt to prevent them
from becoming overworked.
It is expected that the meet with Johns Hopkins will be a hard one, as the Marylanders are particularly strong in the broad and high jumps,
and also in the hurdles and half-mille.
Harry Brigham, who ran the mile in the Penn meet, left college the first part of last week, but it is understood that he will return in time to get in

Claim That Umpire Changed Decision-Norfolk Wins, 5 to 4.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Norfolk, Va., May 1.—The Shoemakers put a large bundle of errors behind the excellent twirling of Brooks in to-day's game, and these, on top of the long drives by Tars and hard luck, gave Norfolk the game by the score of 5 to 4, but it is an officially protested game.
One Colonel Stocksdale, leader of the Shoemakers, entered his protest in writing, and he has good grounds for it, in a way. He charges that in the fifth Umpire Eckman changed his decision. It is true although many
